1. Introduction – Evolus' Commitment to Transparency Reporting

Evolus International Ltd, a subsidiary of Evolus Group is an international organisation that research, develops and markets healthcare solutions with a focus on the aesthetic neurotoxin market. It currently operates in 7 countries and employs over 250 people. We are proud of our values that form at the basis of our corporate philosophy.

We regularly work and collaborate with various stakeholders including healthcare professionals (HCPs) Other Relevant DecisionMakers (ORDMs), and healthcare organisations (HCOs) on a range of activities in the interest of our patients. These include but are not limited to the delivery of medical education programmes, receipt of advice on various topics such as medicines development and clinical best practice. These working relationships are essential to gaining the real-world information we need in order to deliver treatment choices that improve the health of patients and to share information that may be relevant to clinical decision making and patient care.

Evolus International believes that transparency is essential to building and maintaining confidence in us and in our product(s), and strongly support the work being done by The European Federation of Pharmaceutical Industries and Associations (EFPIA) and the Association of the British Pharmaceutical Industry (ABPI) Code of Practice, to improve transparency across the pharmaceutical industry. We act with Integrity, Trust, Respect and Transparency. Our full commitment to the highest ethics and integrity standards is a cornerstone of our values and our actions; transparency and openness of our interactions with HCPs, HCOs, and ORDMs is one of the key Evolus core behaviours, leading our way of conducting ourselves and our business.

Evolus International is committed to ensuring that Transparency is respected, demonstrating the integrity of our relationship with HCPs, HCO, disclosing relevant transfers of value to HCPs, HCOs, and ORDMs. This extends to contracted services provided to members of public including expert patients and journalists and media influencers.

We are accountable for compliance with local laws, regulations and the ABPI Code of Practice for tracking and disclosure of ToVs.

Transfers of value (ToVs) made in 2023 by Evolus International Ltd, including any relevant ToVs made by other Affiliates of the Evolus Group to HCPs/ORDMs and HCOs, whose principal address is in the United Kingdom (UK) are published on the ABPI Platform. The report remains in the public domain for a minimum of 3 years after the time such information is first disclosed.

This methodological note describes the key aspects and clarifications on the nature - how the transfers of value included in the disclosure are categorised, and the format in which they are disclosed in accordance with the ABPI Code of Practice.

2.) Disclosure methodology & Scope

Corporate scope	Evolus International will issue one report for each country showing all Transfers of Value (ToVs) made by that country to HCPs / HCOs by the appropriate Evolus Affiliate as necessitated by the local country regulations.
Disclosure Scope	Included ToVs: Evolus International documents and discloses all relevant Transfers of Value that are related to our prescription-only medicine and that are made, directly or indirectly, to or for the benefit of a Recipient. All TOVs made to HCOs and Individuals (HCPs and ORDMs), are reported in accordance with the specific requirements of the ABPI code of practice as listed in the Transfer of Value Categories Table above. When TOVs are made for an Evolus organised meeting or event, which involves payments to faculty organisations (HCOs) and/or members (HCPs) for the provision of services such as expert speakers, these will be disclosed against the HCO or HCP and not against the HCP attendees as beneficiaries of Non-monetary TOVs for attending the educational meeting. When ToVs are made through a “Third party”, necessary arrangements have been made with third parties to ensure the obligations are fulfilled (e.g., Third parties representing or acting on behalf of Evolus International Ltd, provide Evolus with detailed information of the ToV made to HCPs and HCOs). Excluded ToVs: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ♦ Costs of meals & drinks - are excluded. 3.) Data Protection and Consent Management

Consent to publish & GDPR legal basis for disclosure:

Disclosure of TOV's to Individuals

There are two routes for processing the personal data of individual HCP, ORDMs and other relevant consultants for disclosure - legitimate interest, or consent from the individuals. Evolus International discloses the TOVs to individuals based on their consent to the disclosure of the TOV made to them.

- If the individual provides consent for disclosure, the sum of all ToVs to that individual during the reporting period is disclosed under his/her name according to the specific ToV category.
- If the individual does not provide consent to disclosure, all the ToVs in the reporting period are reported in the "aggregate" section, as part of the sum of all the TOV, without stating the personal details of the individual.

In all cases, the Evolus Privacy Notice is provided to the individuals and is also available in those websites under our control where the TOV are disclosed. We make our best effort to advocate for transparency and explain its societal benefits.

Indirect ToV to Individuals via a third-party: Where individuals have requested that their payment is made to a third party such as their employer, the ToV has been reported as being received by the individual (with consent or in aggregate as stated above) in accordance with the EFPIA and ABPI Code of Practice requirements.

Management of recipient's queries and requests: As the UK disclosure data will be hosted on the ABPI central platform, HCPs/HCOs or ORDMs should in the first case raise queries or requests with the ABPI data management Partner. If data queried by an HCP/ORDM has already been published on the public search, it will be immediately suppressed in the system and will disappear from publication until the query is resolved. HCP/ORDMs will continue to see the queried data within their private Disclosure Portal even if it is under query. Any data queried by HCOs will remain published.

Disclosure of TOV's to HCOs

Evolus International does not obtain consents from HCOs for the disclosure of the transfers of value made to them because legal entities are not subject to personal data protection under the law and therefore the consent collection is not required.

4.) Publication

Publication/Re-publication: Evolus International will publish transparency disclosure reports in line with the timelines as defined by the ABPI code or MHRA guidelines. Re-publication will be carried out as and when needed in line with these codes/laws.
